United Nations Convention on the Rights of persons with Disabilities

Ireland ratified the United Nations Convention on the Rights of persons with Disabilities in March 2018 promising to change laws, policies and practices to make sure everyone can enjoy the rights set out in the treaty.

The eight guiding principles of the treaty are:

- 1) Respect for dignity and individual autonomy.
- 2) Non discrimination
- 3) Full and effective participation and inclusion
- 4) Respect for difference and acceptance of persons with disabilities as part of human diversity.
- 5) Equality of opportunity
- 6) Accessibility
- 7) Gender equality
- 8) The respect for the evolving capacities of children with disabilities and respect for the right of children to preserve their identities.
